

Date Wednesday, 12 April 2023

Operation Calder: Investigation report released by the Integrity Commissioner

An investigation into allegations that AFP appointees colluded to award redundancies to two AFP appointees

The Integrity Commissioner and head of the Australian Commission for Law Enforcement Integrity (ACLEI), Ms Jaala Hinchcliffe, has today published the investigation report on Operation Calder.

Operation Calder investigated allegations that AFP appointees colluded to award genuine redundancies to two AFP appointees, which they were not entitled to.

The investigation did not identify evidence of collusion or conduct that was engaged in for a corrupt purpose and on this basis, no corruption findings have been made.

The investigation report for Operation Calder is available on the ACLEI website.

About the Australian Commission for Law Enforcement Integrity (ACLEI)

ACLEI is committed to preventing and investigating corruption issues relating to Commonwealth law enforcement agencies. ACLEI supports the Integrity Commissioner to provide independent assurance to government about the integrity of prescribed law enforcement agencies and their staff members. The office of the Integrity Commissioner and ACLEI are established by the Law Enforcement Integrity Commissioner Act 2006. For more information, visit ACLEI's website: aclei.gov.au