OPERATION ANGOVE - public hearings into allegations of corruption in interactions between the Department of Home Affairs and Crown Casino delayed

28 October 2019 (immediate release)

ACLEI was scheduled to commence public hearings on 29 October 2019 into an investigation concerning interactions between the Department of Home Affairs and Crown Casino.

ACLEI has decided to delay the commencement of the public hearings. In the last 24 hours the availability of a key witness has become in doubt due to unforeseen personal circumstances. In addition, a number of key witnesses have recently come forward with new information.

ACLEI will make an announcement about the new dates for public hearings in the near future.

All enquiries regarding the Operation Angove hearings should be sent to PublicHearings@aclei.gov.au.
